2007 KCPC Scholarship Short Essay 1: Testimony

Applicant's Name (Please print): _____

Short Essay: Please write your personal testimony. Be aware that this essay should not be a description of the gospel alone, but also a description of your particular, personal calling to and experience of faith and faithful living as a follower of the Lord Jesus. A description of how your faith informs your current day-to-day living would be appropriate.

NOTE: Limit essay to approximately 500 words, or less.

“And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ.” -Ephesians 4:11-12

2007 KCPC Scholarship Short Essay 2: Calling

Applicant's Name (Please print): _____

Short Essay: Please describe your personal sense of calling for the present and future. A description of how your vocation (current or planned), service / volunteer work, education, or other activity relates to your calling would be appropriate.

NOTE: Limit essay to approximately 500 words, or less.

"And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ." -Ephesians 4:11-12

2007 KCPC Scholarship Short Essay 3: Financial Situation

Applicant's Name (Please print): _____

Short Essay: Describe your financial situation, giving more perspective on your particular circumstances and need, if any. Be as specific as possible. Also, do indicate all external funding sources that are currently being used in direct support of educational pursuits, such as financial aid, loans, work, scholarships, family support, etc. If external funding sources are listed, please describe their relative contribution to educational funding (e.g., 70% of tuition provided by financial aid, 20% of tuition provided by loans, 10% of tuition and 100% of class materials provided through work). This information will be kept confidential.

NOTE: Limit essay to approximately 500 words, or less.

"And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ." -Ephesians 4:11-12
